

THE ONLY
MASQUERADE
AT RANELAGH
THIS SEASON.

BY PARTICULAR DESIRE

This present THURSDAY, April 11,
WILL BE
A Grand Masquerade.

The Doors to be opened at Ten o'Clock.

And an Elegant Supper served at One,
WITH
Champagne, Burgundy, Claret, &c.

Tickets at TWO GUINEAS each, to be had at Mess. Longman and Broderip's Music Shops; Mrs. Richman's Masquerade Warehouse, Oxford-street; and at Ranelagh-House.

The Managers respectfully inform the Nobility and Gentry, that the Rotunda is rendered as Warm as any Place of Public Entertainment.

The GARDENS and ROTUNDA will be Opened for the Season, on MONDAY next, April 15, 1793.

Tickets for Private Coach Stands for the Season, may be had at Ranelagh House.

Masquerade Dresses to be had this Evening at Ranelagh House.